while not quite so violent as thos of lightning, often cause mortals more trouble. Three recent cases, in which the little God of Love, after monthly people fall apparently in love, showed them what a joke he had been playing, are proof of this Joke of a Little Animal.

That a little animal, hardly a foot long, could play a huge joke on the greatest engineering minds of the country by showing them that it could perform feats that had baffied them seems impossible. But it has come to pass, and one of the greatest obstacles in the way of extending the telephone system has been removed by this diminutive creature, which has started to work for the telephone companies throughout the United States.

which both Tickle and Hocus Pocus, A few days ago Tickle fairly towas the facts alleged in the case did not constitute a crime.

They argued that Mr. Perkins had made the contribution by authority ond in which his smart Octagon filly. Wo dwitch, scratched out a win from Bath Maria. Woodwitch was swering to death the contribution by authority.

Head-and-Head Finish. Mr. Jerome, despite his recent brief to the Grand Jury, was forced to argue that Perkins had not only acted illesting, but with relonious intent.

The hearing to-lay was set for 2.30 paroled in Attorney Delafield's custody, by clock. Before then District-Attorney Jerome, and his, assistants, Kresel and Gens, ploughed their way through the Goothing on Second Page.)

Mr. Jerome, despite his recent brief jam of spectators in the tribunal. Mr. By far the closest finish of the meeting was in the first race to-day, when Chieftain came from behind Brushup and best her in a hard drive by a head. Brushup made all the runing and weakened in the last few strides, which permitted Chieftain to nip her on the post. Bluecoat was a contender until nearly the end, where he also weakened. Continued on Second Page.)

Another Good Belmont Filly. Mr. Beimont introduced a very shifty filly in Woodwitch in the two-year-old race. She got away in the bunch, but was so quick on her feet that she was in the lead after going a furlong. Havana held on to Woodwitch for a time, but finally gave up and Bath Maria came along and took the place, closing on the leader very rapidly, but too late to get the big end of the purse.

Bivouac Was a Surprise.

Bivouac Was a Surprise. Bivouac surprised the talent by beating out Tickle and others in the third event. Mr. Belmont's mare took an early lead and held to the close, winning by a couple of lengths from Tickle and Society Bud. Hocus Pocus could not move in the going, judging from her laborious action.

Reidmoore Fools Bettors. The talent were all very much at sea on the fifth event. Delphic and Jack McKeon were looked upon as moral cinches. They were nothing like it, as Reidmoore cut out his own pace in the race and won cleverly from Delphic and McKeon. Workman looked promising for a while, but stopped under his heavy impost.

Duke of Kendal Swerved. Duke of Kendal was beaten in the last race by Bill Curtis, who led from start to finish, Kendal swerved at the end, which possibly beat him. Sailor Boy got off badly. He should have won.

TURNEY REFUSES TO DISCLOSE WHO GOT STOLEN CASH

Note-Teller Goes Wrong After Thirtythree Years in Bank of North America—Suspicions of Clerk Led to Quick Discovery.

A woman is believed to have been responsible for the downfall of Joseph A. Turney, note teller of the National Bank of North America, at No. 43 Exchange place, who was arraigned in Centre Street Police Court to-day charged with the theft of $34,000. Detective O'Connor, who has been at work on the case, is of the opinion that Turney, after taking the money from the funds of the bank yesterday morning, handed it to a woman whom he met at luncheon in the Wall street district.

Turney is a captain in the Twenty-second Regiment, and his friends refuse to credit the assumption of the detective and of certain officers of the bank that he became entangled with a woman. When he was arrested last night, illustrated post-cards, decorated with suggestive questions in the handwriting of a woman, were found in his pockets. He explained that they had been given to him at noon by a woman he met at luncheon. Turney is fifty years old and lived at No. 64 Montage street, Brooklyn. He has a wife and one son, who is about twenty years old. The National How long Turney speculated in the lerk, advancing step by step as he est suspicion against him in the bank sained experience and established him- however, until yesterday afternoon

Spent Money Freely.

As Turney's salary advanced slowly the various promotions, his expenses became heavier. He joined the Turney's treatment of a $3,000 check.
